PLAQUE IS UNVEILED ON NEWLY CONSTRUCTED CANAL POINT BRIDGE

Above is a plaque unveiled Thursday on the recently constructed bridge over the West Palm Beach Canal at Canal Point on U. S. 441. The plaque is unique in the fact that it carries the name of J. H. Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody! Dewey Martin fits the Hollywood picture of a typical "Horatio Alger" guy. He has made his dreams come true. On his own most of his life, he has reached the top the hard way, with a self-confidence that never permitted him to be discouraged. Not even an eighteen-month period of inactivity on the screen, just after he had been named filmdom's outstanding new young star, dimmed his ambition. His theory that he would finally "get there" is borne out by the fact that he has "arrived," just as he predicted. Born in Katemey, Texas, Martin was thrown virtually on his own at an early age. His father died when Dewey was seven years old. Five years later, his mother's health broke down the strain of supporting her two young sons, Dewey and his brother Jimmy. The two boys were then separated and lived with relatives for various periods. Thus, Dewey from one family to another. At one time he lived in California, at other times in the South. After two years at the University of Georgia and Louisiana State Teachers college, he enlisted in the navy, and during World War II saw action in the Pacific as a fighter pilot. It was during his wartime service that he first became interested in acting. After his honorable discharge from the Navy, and a brief fling at a ranch job in Arizona, he sold his car and traveled by bus to Ogunquit, Maine. There he joined a little theatre group and was given his first experience as an actor. After two summers of stock and two winters of unsuccessful pounding of New York's pavements he decided on Hollywood and his decision proved to be the turning point in his life. See you at the movies—Mal.

Chester A. Batchelor Talks To Lions

Chester A. Batchelor, president of the Everglades Life Insurance Underwriters Association, was guest speaker at Pahokee Lions Club at Woman's Club Building Tuesday noon. Mayor Friend outlined purposes and plans for the newly organized Pahokee Builders, Inc., which has as its purpose the expansion of Pahokee. He said the incorporation plans to sub-divide 10 acres of land and to build a group of 5 houses at a time. These houses will be sold to persons desiring to become home owners.

President Ralph Johnson asked that a committee from Pahokee work with a committee from Belle Glade on program plans for the football clinic which will be conducted in Pahokee this fall. Johnson also named Mayor Friend and Duncan Padgett to assist a committee planning an all day fishing trip for members.

WHICH ONE DO YOU WANT ?

you can have your dream house—this easy way!

A dream? Not at all. Thousands of people with modest incomes have been able to save the down payment, or the whole price, of the home of their dreams—because they invested in U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Look at the chart on this page. See how you can accumulate enough money for the down payment on a home. Or enough for your children's college education or a retirement income. And by saving only a few dollars a week, too.

The answer is that you save systematically on the Payroll Savings Plan. All you have to do is tell your pay office how much you've decided to save each payday (it can be as little as a couple of dollars). After that your money is saved for you, before you get your salary. Then each time enough has accumulated, it is invested in a Bond, and the Bond turned over to you:

And remember—your U. S. Savings Bonds now will bring you an average of 3% interest, compounded semiannually, for 19 years and 8 months. That's why the money you put into Bonds now grows to such a surprisingly big sum.

Why don't you start—today? Sign, where you work, for the Payroll Savings Plan. Or, if you're self-employed, have your banker enroll you in the Bond-A-Month Plan. It's as easy as the Payroll Savings Plan:

*How you can reach your savings goal
on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan*

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save...	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save...	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. You can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

Jones Sisters Win Talent Scout Prize

The Jones Sisters, beautifully wardrobe and with perfect coordination in gestures, dance steps and voices wrapped up the first place in the next to closing spot of Malcolm Millar's Talent Scout Show at the Prince Theatre, Tuesday night, with a thunder of applause from the large crowd in attendance.

Neely Johnson gave a masterful performance on the trombone with his rendition of "Tiger Rag" and a "Boogie" number. He took second place for his efforts.

Judy Howard, who possesses a charming personality and sweet voice came away with a fine round of applause with her singing of "Cross Over The Bridge". With a little more training Judy could do well with the delivery of the right type of song.

Wayne Elliott presented a balancing act that was one of the most novel exhibition of the art we have ever witnessed. It was the opinion of many the second prize should have gone to him. This young man could really do something with his talent.

La Verne Gieger exhibited a fine touch at the piano. Costumed as a gypsy he received a thunder of applause with his "Gypsy Melody" and followed with a novel rendition of "Alexander's Ragtime Band." This young man is really talented and performs like a real showman.

Billy Mathis, from Belle Glade, offered "Blue Moon" with a charming style and robust voice we liked.

Bob and Joe Dilow nearly tied the show in a knot with their offering of "Steel Guitar Rag" and "In the Mood" on electric guitars. They were forced to a third encore.

The seven act bill, under the direction of Malcolm Millar moved along smoothly. Don's Food Store and Jack Spencer's Meat Market were sponsors.
